Walk for Life

Come join us on Saturday, January 22, 2011 as 45 Spirit-filled walkers take a comfortable bus ride to beautiful San Francisco for the Walk for Life West Coast. Join thousands of women, men and children of goodwill as we proclaim to the world that Abortion Hurts Women and Women Deserve Better than Abortion ®! Abortion harms not only the defenseless preborn child, but also the women, men and families involved, and society as a whole. Will you stand with us as we walk this journey together? To speak for those who cannot speak, to walk for those who cannot walk; to pray for, fight for, stand up for, and love the life of every unborn child! Come and Walk for Life!
For further information and to reserve you seat please contact: Tracy or April at 882-2958.

Announcements

There will be no confessions on Saturday December 25, Christmas Day and Saturday, January 1, New Years Day.

On January 8, Confession will return to the normal time of 3:00-3:30 pm on Saturdays.

Respect Life

La … Iglesia no es insensible ni cruel cuando se opone a la investigación con células madre embrionarias humanas. La Iglesia es sincera y habla con la verdad [al] señalar por qué esta clase de investigación es moralmente incorrecta mientras que señala otras formas de investigación que son moralmente buenas y ya demuestran verdadero progreso. Como miembros de la Iglesia, necesitamos conocer los hecho médicos, los principios del derecho moral natural y el "qué" y el "por qué" de las enseñanzas de la Iglesia en esta área. Nuestra postura al oponernos a la investigación con células madre embrionarias humanas no es solamente una perspectiva católica; es una perspectiva moral; no es simplemente una directiva católica, sino un imperativo del derecho moral natural. No estamos imponiendo la doctrina católica en la sociedad en general, sino estamos buscando legítimamente influir en las decisiones desde una instancia moral que mira al bien común.

~Reverendísimo Paul S. Loverde, Obispo de Arlington, Virginia, Homilía, 25 de septiembre de 2010

The … Church is not being insensitive or heartless when she opposes human embryonic stem-cell research. She is being honest and truthful [to] point out why this kind of research is morally wrong while pointing to other forms of research which are morally good and are already demonstrating real progress. As members of the Church, we need to know the medical facts, the principles of the natural moral law and the "what" and "why" of the Church's teachings in this area. Our stance in opposing human embryonic stem cell research is not just a Catholic perspective; it is a moral perspective; it is not just a Catholic directive, but a natural moral law imperative. We are not imposing Catholic doctrine on the wider society, but we are rightfully seeking to influence decisions from a moral stance which looks to the common good.

~Most Rev. Paul S. Loverde, Bishop of Arlington, Virginia, Homily, September 25, 2010

FEAST OF FAITH
Processions

Why does the liturgy begin with a procession? It is not just a practical matter of getting the ministers of the liturgy from the sacristy to the sanctuary. The procession is a powerful sign of who we are as Christian people. We are not static, staying in one place. We are going somewhere. Our procession leads us to the altar, sign of Christ's presence in our midst. We move, we process, because we recognize our need for what Christ is preparing for us at that table. We go forward eagerly, because we are hungry for that heavenly food.

This procession is an orderly one: servers, deacon, priest presider. Each is set apart by distinctive vesture: albs for the altar servers, dalmatic for the deacon, chasuble for the priest. The procession is an image of the hierarchical structure of the Church. On a deeper level it is an image of unity in diversity. We are all on a journey to the heavenly city, but each of us is clothed with different gifts. We all receive the call to service, but not in the same way. Only by coming together in all our wonderful variety can we achieve the work of the kingdom.

FIESTA DE LA FE
Los rituales

Los rituales son acciones que separamos de lo ordinario para significar con ellas algo extraordinario, algo que va más allá de nuestras propias emociones y palabras. De hecho, los rituales no se explican, se experimentan y en esa experiencia se agotan las explicaciones porque no son necesarias. En lugar de definirlos, invitamos a las personas a que experimenten, no tanto lo que hemos experimentado nosotros, sino lo que el ritual ha hecho en nosotros. Los rituales son acciones sagradas que llevan en sí mismas todo lo que las palabras no son capaces de transmitir. De hecho, la experiencia del ritual nada tiene que ver con palabras, sino con acciones concretas de participación mediante nuestros sentidos y nuestra disposición interior. Con esto no es posible afirmar que el ritual es algo mágico, sino más bien un espacio de la vida en el cual la gracia de Dios se hace presente, evidente y transparente; nosotros nos disponemos a que esa gracia transforme nuestra vida por completo, incluyendo nuestras emociones. La Eucaristía es un "ritual de rituales". Ahí hay palabras y acciones, la palabra misma es sagrada y las acciones van más allá de nuestras palabras. Este ritual nos sumerge en el tiempo de Dios de una manera sensible.
