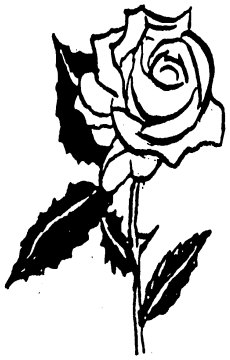
Respect Life



© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Por su parte, la Iglesia ha tenido siempre un gran respeto por los ancianos... Dios quiere un verdadero respeto por la dignidad y el valor, la salud y el bienestar de las personas mayores y, a través de sus instituciones caritativas… la Iglesia desea cumplir el mandato del Señor de respetar la vida, independientemente de su edad o circunstancias.

~Papa Benedicto XVI, Discurso en la Residencia San Pedro, Londres, 18 de septiembre

For her part, the Church has always had great respect for the elderly. … God wills a proper respect for the dignity and worth, the health and well-being of the elderly and, through her charitable institutions … the Church seeks to fulfill the Lord's command to respect life, regardless of age or circumstances.

~Pope Benedict XVI, Address at St. Peter's Residence, London, September 18, 2010

FEAST OF FAITH
Watching for Christ's Coming

In the season of Advent, we look to the coming of Christ at the end of time, and we prepare ourselves to celebrate his first coming among us at Christmas. Remembrance of the past is combined with preparation for the future. Memory meets action.

In a certain sense, the Mass is an Advent prayer. At the Last Supper, Jesus did not tell his disciples, "Never forget what I did for you." Instead, he said, "Do this in remembrance of me." He calls us to remember by doing, to combine memory with action. In the celebration of the Eucharist, remembering and doing become one. Jesus is as present in our midst as he was in that upper room, breaking the bread and sharing the cup; but it is a new kind of presence, seen only with the eyes of faith. In the heavenly liturgy, there will be no need of sacraments, for there, "celebration is wholly communion and feast" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1136). Here, things are different. We have only glimpses and flashes of the beauty that is yet to be. And yet, in the liturgy, we truly participate in the heavenly liturgy. The Mass is our foretaste of the joys of heaven.

FIESTA DE LA FE
El saludo litúrgico

Uno de los grandes aportes del Concilio Vaticano II fue el reconocimiento de la presencia de Cristo no sólo en las especies eucarísticas del pan y el vino consagrados, sino también, en la asamblea de creyentes. Esta afirmación crea ya un cambio de enfoque y de actitud hacia quien por cuatro siglos había sido espectadora en la celebración litúrgica. Hubo un gran cambio, no sólo de la contemplación del misterio a la celebración gozosa del mismo misterio, sino en el pensamiento mismo de la Iglesia respecto a sí misma como pueblo de Dios y no sólo como orden jerárquico. Por tal razón, el presbítero, quien preside nuestra liturgia y celebra con todos nosotros, nos saluda con "El Señor esté con ustedes". Este es un saludo litúrgico que lleva en sí mismo un gran peso teológico: Él reconoce en el pueblo de Dios la presencia de Cristo y saluda esa presencia. La reconoce. La honra. El pueblo mismo, en respuesta, reafirmando la presencia de Cristo en él, responde: "Y con tu espíritu". Es decir, también en ti está Cristo presente y saludamos esa presencia en tu ministerio sacerdotal, así como tú saludas y celebras esa presencia en nosotros, la Iglesia, pueblo de Dios.
