Our Bulletin!

Each week, Corpus Christi distributes ap. 300 bulletins directly into the hands of its parishioners and 87% of those bulletins are taken home and utilized throughout the week. Many in the Catholic Community trust the businesses that support their parish and tend to choose these businesses (ie. handyman, painter, restaurants, insurance) over other businesses in the community. If you would like the opportunity to have your business featured on the advertisement page or know of someone with a business who could benefit from this opportunity, please contact Susan Goebel with JS Paluch at (775) 232-3554. Thank you!

THE GIFT OF SALVATION

Naaman and the leper who returned to Jesus saw God's hand in their healing. Only through God's intervention could they have been cured. Through this recognition of God's presence and action in their lives, they grew in faith. For what are you grateful? Pause for a moment to reflect on all of the blessings in your life. God is the source of these many blessings—life, love, gifts, and so much more. Of all the gifts for which we must be grateful, none is as great, or as astounding, as the gift of salvation offered to us through Jesus Christ. Let this sink in, not only in your mind but in your heart. Like Naaman and the leper who returned, allow yourself to be touched by the immense love of God for you.

EL DON DE LA SALVACIÓN

Tanto Naamán como el leproso que regresó a Jesús vieron la mano de Dios en su curación. Solo a través de la intervención de Dios podrían haber sido curados. A través de este reconocimiento de la presencia de Dios y acción en sus vidas, crecieron en la fe. ¿Por qué estás tú agradecido? Haz una pausa para reflexionar en todas las bendiciones en tu vida. Dios es el origen de estas muchas bendiciones, la vida, el amor, los dones y muchas otras cosas. De todos estos dones por los cuales debemos estar agradecidos, ninguno es tan grande, ni tan asombroso, como el don de la salvación que se nos ofrece por medio de Jesucristo. Deja que esto penetre, no sólo en tu mente sino en tu corazón. Como Naamán y el leproso que regresaron, déjate tocar por ese inmenso amor que Dios te tiene.

Reflection of the Week

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life, that is, a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom, is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards.

Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today's Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest.

But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master's affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God.

The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God's. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God's behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility.

The stewardship way of life makes the privilege and responsibility of serving Christ and His kingdom a reality.

“An old Irish proverb says, ‘It is in the shelter of each other that the people live.’ Indeed, we are created to depend upon one another and walk together in suffering. But when family members or friends approach life’s end, we may not know how best to ‘shelter’ them. Here are some concrete ways we can compassionately care for them: usccb.org/end-of-life-care.”

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

This Sunday's readings explore how we see and respond to blessing in our lives. We hear two stories of healing and of thanksgiving, of a powerful military leader Naaman, and of a powerless Samaritan leper. Both are examples of humility and gratitude that mark the presence of faith in God. We observe that both Naaman and the leper had their horizons expanded by their healing. Once healed, they did not simply attribute this to a stroke of luck, and then go on with their lives. Instead, they began to see God on the move, reaching out to everyone, and actively blessing all creation. Jesus notes that the leper's faith saved him, because he was receptive to seeing this fuller reality. Faith changes our perception. Faith allows us to see beyond our usual boundaries, to embrace a loving God, and to participate in sharing that love with others.

"The cantor scold a lector for singing badly? Mmm...no. The pastor scold you for not singing? Mmm... yes."

Vigésimo Octavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas de este domingo exploran cómo vemos y respondemos a la bendición en nuestras vidas. Escuchamos dos historias de curación y de agradecimiento, la del poderoso líder militar Naamán y la de un leproso samaritano sin poder. Ambos son ejemplos de humildad y gratitud que marcan la presencia de la fe en Dios. Observamos que tanto Naamán como el leproso vieron ampliados sus horizontes gracias a su curación. Una vez curados, no se limitaron a atribuirlo a un golpe de suerte y a seguir con sus vidas. Por el contrario, empezaron a ver a Dios en movimiento, llegando a todo el mundo, y bendiciendo activamente a toda la creación. Jesús señala que la fe del leproso lo salvó, porque fue receptivo a ver esta realidad más completa. La fe cambia nuestra percepción. La fe nos permite ver más allá de nuestros límites habituales, abrazar a un Dios amoroso y participar en el reparto de ese amor con los demás.

SERVANT OF THE SERVANTS OF GOD

On October 17 we will mark the 107th anniversary of the birth of Albino Luciani, the man who would become Pope John Paul I, the “Smiling Pope.” He was elected pope on August 26, 1978 and died thirty-three days later, on September 28, 1978. That was a short time, but nine other popes have served for even fewer days. The pope who held the office longest was Blessed Pius IX (1846–1878). He was pope for thirty-one years, seven months, and twenty-three days.

Pope is one name for the man who leads the Catholic Church but he is known by several other titles, among them Bishop of Rome and Vicar of Christ. One good descriptive title is Servant of the Servants of God. Who do you think are the servants of God? Which title do you like best?

Here are some interesting facts about the men we call our popes. With the help of an adult, see if you can match the correct answers. Hint: You will use one of the answers twice.

GOD’S WAYS

The passage from 2 Kings concludes the story of Naaman, a foreign military leader who suffers from a skin disease named as leprosy. The full story of Naaman is well worth reading, beginning in 2 Kings 5:1, as it describes the journey of a powerful man desperate for a cure, and who finds it most unexpectedly. He has used up all the options available to the wealthy and well-connected. But his slave girl from Israel points him to Elisha, the little-known Jewish prophet. Other servants rescue Naaman from his pride, and he is led to accept healing.

This story illustrates how God’s ways are different from worldly ways. God acts primarily through the lowly and faithful, while power and wealth fail to solve the world’s problem. Those on the margins, or those with humility, are often best able to see the opportunities God makes available. When Naaman humbled himself, he discovered God’s ways, and gave thanks to God.

LOS CAMINOS DE DIOS

El pasaje de 2 Reyes concluye con la historia de Naamán, un líder militar extranjero que padece una enfermedad de la piel llamada lepra. Merece la pena leer la historia completa de Naamán, que comienza en 2 Reyes 5:1, ya que describe el viaje de un hombre poderoso desesperado por una cura, y que la encuentra de la forma más inesperada. Ha agotado todas las opciones disponibles para los ricos y bien conectados. Pero su esclava de Israel le señala a Eliseo, el poco conocido profeta judío. Otros siervos rescatan a Naamán de su orgullo, y éste es llevado a aceptar la curación.

Esta historia ilustra cómo los caminos de Dios son diferentes de los mundanos. Dios actúa principalmente a través de los humildes y los fieles, aunque el poder y la riqueza no resuelven el problema del mundo. Los marginados, o los humildes, suelen ser los más capaces de ver las oportunidades que Dios pone a su disposición. Cuando Naamán se humilló, descubrió los caminos de Dios y le dio gracias.
