Gifts to God...Have You Given Yours?

Prayer Request from Bishop Calvo

I ask you to join in a nationwide prayer in preparation for the general assembly of the bishops of the United States which will take place starting on November 12th. Please pray that the Holy Spirit send upon this gathering the gifts of wisdom and fortitude as the bishops make critical decisions in response to the terrible tragedy of clergy sex abuse. Please continue to pray for the victims and survivors of abuse and for the Church. When one member suffers harm, the entire body is wounded. We look to Jesus, who came to heal and reconcile us. We look to our Good Shepherd: may we bishops, who have been entrusted with the pastoral care of his people, follow his example and go where he leads us.

I will be very grateful for your prayers. Bishop Randolph Calvo

Petición de oración del Obispo Calvo

Les invito que se unan a la oración nacional en preparación para la asamblea general de los obispos de los Estados Unidos que se llevará cabo a partir del 12 de noviembre. Oremos para que el Espíritu Santo envíe sobre esta reunión los dones de sabiduría y fortaleza mientras los obispos toman decisiones críticas en respuesta a la terrible tragedia del abuso sexual por parte del clero. Por favor, continúen orando por las víctimas y sobrevivientes de abuso y por la Iglesia. Cuando un miembro sufre un daño, todo el cuerpo está herido. Pongamos nuestros ojos en Jesús, que vino a sanarnos y reconciliarnos. Pongamos los ojos en nuestro Buen Pastor: que nosotros los obispos, a quienes nos han confiado el cuidado pastoral de su pueblo, sigamos su ejemplo y vayamos a donde Él nos guíe. Estaré eternamente agradecido por sus oraciones. Obispo Randolph Calvo

Reflection of the Week

Today's First Reading from the First Book of Kings, as well as the Gospel passage from Mark, both center on the actions of two seemingly poor and helpless widows who show themselves to be faith-filled and generous stewards.

In the eyes of the world, particularly in biblical times when there was no life insurance or Social Security, these widows were weak and dependent on others to take care of them. They each found themselves in desperate situations — one in the midst of famine with a child for which to care, and the other clearly impoverished. Yet, each demonstrated strength and generosity that distinguished them from those around them. From where did this strength come? It came from knowing who they are, and Whose they are. These women must have known their security would not come from a good life insurance policy or connections to someone with a hidden storehouse of flour. No, their security came from knowing they were daughters of the Most High God and from putting their faith in Him. They had no need to panic in the midst of natural disaster or cling desperately to their meager resources. Their faith in God set them free to trust Him when all seemed hopeless. Their faith kept them detached from material possessions. Their faith allowed them to be brave and generous, to think of others despite their own trials.

These women saw themselves as stewards, not owners, of the resources God gave them, regardless of how much or how little they had. And acting as stewards made them gracious, generous and mighty indeed.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — This poor widow put in more than all the other contributors (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the “Great War”) on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures.

Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier’s cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or “chapel,” the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostella, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as “Saint Martin’s Lent” or “Martinmas,” that later developed into the season of Advent.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Antes de regresar a la derecha del Padre, Jesús prometió estar con sus discípulos siempre. Esta es una promesa que él ha mantenido de diversas maneras, estando con nosotros por su Espíritu, por su palabra, en nuestro corazón. Pero Jesús también desea estar con sus siervos de una manera física y real, es por eso que en su Última Cena tomó pan y vino consagrándolos como su cuerpo y sangre.

La Eucaristía que Jesús inauguró el Jueves Santo continúa consagrándose día tras día en las manos de sacerdotes santos y ni tan santos. No es la dignidad del cura que importa sino, la generosidad de Cristo que desea estar con sus fieles. Uno de estos fieles, el joven uruguayo Walter Elías Chango Rondeau, (1921-1939) en sus pocos años de vida encontró consuelo en el hecho de que Dios se entrega a sí mismo en la comunión.

Según testigos, Walter animaba a sus compañeros a la reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Hablaba tan elocuentemente del Santísimo Sacramento, que parecía sacerdote. Siendo laico, él supo ejercer su sacerdocio bautismal.
