FROM THE DIOCESE:

Eucharistic Revival, Introduction to the Mass:
Eucharistic Prayer #2-Preface

"...when you hear 'Lift up the heart' from the high priest, you answer, 'We have lifted it up to the Lord.' Try very hard to make your answer a true one, because you are making it in the course of the activity of God; let it be just as you say; don't let the tongue declare it, while the conscience denies it."

St. Augustine Sermon 229A

The Preface is in a sense the gate to the heavenly mysteries, because through the Preface we enter the company of the Blessed. The introductory dialogue of the Preface is very ancient, preceding even St. Augustine in the 4th Century, and it summarizes our hope in heaven. In English, when we respond to the priest's invitation "Lift up your hearts" we say poetically "we lift them up to the Lord." However, the original Latin is much more direct—we don't lift them to the Lord as though it were an action we are doing right now. Rather it says, "habemos ad Dominum"—we have, to the Lord. It is a subtle point, but an important one; our hearts are already with the Lord, because our whole lives have already been directed to Him—we now simply approach where our hearts have proceeded us.

What is most important in your life right now?

How can you consecrate that to God?

Word of Life: January 7th

"Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him... Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "The Gospel of Life: A Brief Summary"

PALABRA DE VIDA: 7 de enero

"Por medio de la Encarnación y el nacimiento de Cristo, Dios nos revela la dignidad de toda vida humana. La vida humana, como un don de Dios, es sagrada e inviolable, El Hijo de Dios se ha unido con todos los seres humanos y desea que compartamos la vida eterna con Él... Cada uno de nosotros está hecho a imagen y semejanza de Dios, y reflejamos su gloria en el mundo." Secretariado de Actividades Pro-Vida de la USCCB "El Evangelio de la Vida: Breve resumen")
