"People often say, 'I could never handle a child with a disability.' But the beauty of parenting is that you aren't given a child with a disability. You are given your child with a disability. Your child enters the world in a relationship with you, and that changes everything. You are not called to 'handle' a disability. You are called to love a particular person, and caring for him or her grows out of that love."

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, "A Perfect Gift" respectlife.org/a-perfect-gift

A menudo la gente dice: "Nunca podría encargarme de un niño con discapacidad". Pero la belleza de ser padres es que no te dan un hijo con discapacidad. Te dan a tu hijo con discapacidad. Tu hijo entra al mundo en una relación contigo, y eso lo cambia todo. No estás llamado a "encargarte" de una discapacidad. Estás llamado a amar a una persona en particular, y cuidarla brota de ese amor.

USCCB Secretariado de Actividades Pro-Vida, "Un regalo perfecto" respectlife.org/a-perfect-gift
